the Maharaja of Mysore, Genl and Rev.Deptts.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that one Sivachara Hutchappa of Nelamangala and Venkatasani daughter of Sanjeevamma Devadasi of the Sri Venkataramanaswami temple at Basavanahalli in the Nelamangala Taluk, jointly contributed a sum of Rs.600/- as Pudavat and lent the same in 1892 to one Yejaman Gubbiappa the brother of the said Hutchappa with the stipulation that an interest of Rs.30/- should be paid annually by the debtor to the -- temples of Basavanahalli Venkataramanaswami and Kasivisweswara swami of Nelamangala, on account of the expenses for Sevarthas during the car festivals of the two temples. Yejman Gubbiappa the debtor executed a bond in favour of both the donors hypothecating as security a shop belonging to him bearing Municipal No. 478 situated in the town of Nelamangala. Although both the donors Hutchappa and Venkatasami died 10 or 12 years ago, the debtor Yejaman Gubbiappa continued to pay the interest of the expenses of the car festivals up to the year Sowmya 1909-10. In 1910 -- Yejaman Gubbiappa being unable to pay interest any longer petitioned to the Amildar to relieve him of the debt by recovering the same by the disposal of the mortgaged property and subsequently he also died while the matter was under correspondence The doner Hutchanna having no direct heirs, Puttamma the widow of his brother Yejaman Gubbiappa and her son Anubasappa are his claimants. Venkatasami has left a daughter Muni Lakshmisani and a grand daughter Janikisani as heirs.

When the Amildar enquired of these claimants whether they

they would keep the property to themselves and offer cash in lieu thereof, they declined to do so, but offered the property itself to the temples and executed a sale deed in favor of the temples so that the property may be disposed of in any suitable way.

The Amildar reports that the present value of the shop is Rs.400/-, that it is in need of repairs to the extent of Rs.50, that it is not likely to yield an annual rent of -- Rs.24/- and that this income will not be enough for the up-keep of the shop as well as for the expenses of the sevarthas and he accordingly proposes to dispose of the shop by a public auction and to deposit the proceeds thereof in the Savings Bank. He further states that this arrangement would not -- only avoid the risk of the shop falling into disrepair, but will also provide sufficient funds for carrying out the -- Sevarthas.

The Sub-Division Officer of the Dodballapur Sub-Division is also of the same opinion and recommends the sale of the property.

From the records it is seen that the said shop is a mud-roofed building consisting of only 6 ankanas including the veranda in the front and this property; if kept under Government management is, as the Amildars says, difficult to be -- maintained in good order. I therefore beg to recommend that the shop may be orderd to be sold and the proceeds thereof kept in the Savings Bank deposit, so that the interest accruing thereon may conveniently be utilized for the purpose of Sevarthas.

The file of Vernacular correspondence ending with the Dodballapur Sub-Division Officer's Yadi No.508 dated the 7th November 1912, together with the two registered bonds is -- herewith submitted for reference and return.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Deputy Commissioner.
